Here is the Record of the 23 November Senate dialogue on Symington's proposed $4 billion ceiling on the community. In support of the bill he cited the following:

a. Lack of adequate review of intelligence activities in the Senate as compared with the House.

b. His inability to obtain info on intelligence appropriations from the Appropriations Committee staff (Ellender also refused him).

c. Alleged disclosures by Foreign Relations staff investigators of duplication and waste in the field.

d. Concern about the impact of the "reorganization," especially the increased involvement of Kissinger in intelligence matters and reports of plans for a military DDCI
